

Let Me VOTE

On Probation? On Mandatory Supervision? Off Parole? You Have the Right to Vote!

Frequently Asked Questions

What are my voting rights if I have a misdemeanor?

A misdemeanor conviction does not affect your right to vote at all. You can vote in all elections.

What are my voting rights if I have a felony?

If you have a felony conviction, you can vote IF:

- you are on probation, even if you are in county jail as a condition of your probation, or
- you have completed your probation, or
- you are awaiting a judge's decision on a probation violation, or
- you are on mandatory supervision, or
- you are on post-release community supervision, or
- you have completed your parole.

The only time you are not allowed to vote is IF:

- you have a felony conviction and you are still in state prison, or
- you are serving an 1170(h) felony sentence in county jail, or
- you are awaiting transfer to a state prison, or
- you are on parole.

Once you have completed your sentence and parole, you can register to vote. If you are unsure what type of sentence you are serving check with your parole or probation officer.

Can I vote when I am on parole?

No. You can only vote once you have completed your parole.

Can I vote on mandatory supervision?

Yes! You can vote at all times when you are on mandatory supervision.

Can I vote while I am on post-release community supervision?

Yes! You can vote at all times when you are on post-release community supervision.

Can I vote when I am on probation?

Yes! You can vote at all times when you are on probation, whether your conviction is a felony or a misdemeanor.

Can I vote while I am in county jail?

Maybe. You can vote IF you are in county jail:

- awaiting trial for any crime, or
- for a misdemeanor conviction, or
- on a probation violation, or
- on felony probation.

The only time you lose the right to vote while in county jail is when you are:

- in state prison for a felony conviction, or
- in jail awaiting transfer to a state prison for a felony conviction, or
- serving an 1170(h) felony sentence in the county jail, or
- in jail for a parole violation.

How do I get back my right to vote?

In California, you do not need to do anything to “restore” your right to vote. It is automatically restored once you have completed your sentence and are no longer on parole. However, you must register or re-register to vote in an upcoming election.

How do I register to vote?

There are two ways to register to vote:

- You can register online at our website, www.letmevoteca.org.
- You can pick up a paper registration form at the DMV, post office, public libraries, or your county elections office. Complete the form, sign it, and drop it in the mail!

Do I need to re-register if I move or change my name?

Yes. You need to re-register (using either of the methods above) if you move or change your name.

How and where do I vote?

In California, you can vote two ways:

Vote-by-Mail: This means that every election your ballot will be mailed to you and you can take your time to fill it out and mail back your vote. It's easy to become a vote-by-mail voter. Either:

- put your initials on line 15 on your voter registration application, or
- if you are already registered to vote, you will get a vote-by-mail application attached to the sample ballot you receive about a month before the election. Complete this application and mail back to your county election official.

Reminder! A vote-by-mail ballot will be mailed to the address you provide on your voter registration. If you move a lot, this may not be the best option for you.

At your local polling place: Once you are registered to vote, you can vote at your local polling place on Election Day. Your local polling place is listed on the Sample Ballot you receive in the mail. If for any reason you are unsure of your polling place, you can look it up at www.votersedge.org or contact your local county elections office to find out.

When is the last day to register to vote?

You must register (or re-register, if you've moved or changed your name, or if your right to vote has been restored) at least 15 days before the next local, state, or federal election.
