TOP TWO CANDIDATES OPEN PRIMARY ACT

PROPOSITION 14, SENATE BILL 6

PARTISAN OFFICES

On June 8, 2010, voters in California approved Proposition 14, which created the “Top Two Candidates Open Primary Act.” This act affected all candidates for partisan office, with the exception of President of the United States and County Central Committees.

The office of President and County Central Committee may only be voted upon by voters registered with the same political party. However, depending on the party’s ruling, voters who are registered to vote but declined to state a political party (non-partisan voters), MAY have the option of choosing the ballot of a qualified party for the office President and Central Committee only. At the time of printing this handbook, notifications had not yet been received from the parties to indicate which will allow non-partisan voters to request their party’s ballot for President.

VOTER-NOMINATED OFFICES

Prior to Proposition 14, all other candidates running for partisan office appeared only on their party’s ballot, and the candidate with the greatest number of votes from each qualified party, as well as any candidates who qualified using the independent nomination process, would then move on to the general election ballot.

Starting with the June 2012 primary, these partisan office candidates, regardless of their party preference (now known as “voter-nominated” candidates) will appear on a single combined ballot, and voters can vote for any candidate from any political party. Then, only the two candidates who received the highest and second-highest number of votes cast at the primary election will appear on the ballot at the November general election.

PARTY-NOMINATED OFFICES

Under the California Constitution, political parties may formally nominate candidates for party-nominated/partisan offices at the primary election. A candidate so nominated will then represent that party as its official candidate for the office in question at the ensuing general election and the ballot will reflect an official designation to that effect. The top vote-getter for each party at the primary election is entitled to participate in the general election. Parties can also elect officers of official party committees at a partisan primary.

No voter may vote the ballot of any political party at any primary election unless he or she has disclosed a preference for that party upon registering to vote or unless he or she has declined to disclose a party preference and the political party, by party rule duly notice to the Secretary of State, authorizes a person who has declined to disclose a party preference to vote the ballot of that political party. RESIDENCE AND DOMICILE

In order to qualify for most offices, a candidate must be a registered voter of the district or division thereof. The following code sections will assist in determining residence.

Elections Code §349. Residence and Domicile.

- (a) "Residence" for voting purposes means a person's domicile.
- (b) The domicile of a person is that place in which his or her habitation is fixed, wherein the person has the intention of remaining, and to which, whenever he or she is absent, the person has the intention of returning. At a given time, a person may have only one domicile.
- (c) The residence of a person is that place in which the person's habitation is fixed for some period of time, but wherein he or she does not have the intention of remaining. At a given time, a person may have more than one residence.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2020. Term of domicile.

The term of domicile is computed by including the day on which the person's domicile commenced and by excluding the day of the election.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2021. Person away for temporary purposes.

- (a) A person who leaves his or her home to go into another state or precinct in this state for temporary purposes merely, with the intention of returning, does not lose his or her domicile.
- (b) A person does not gain a domicile in any precinct into which he or she comes for temporary purposes merely, without the intention of making that precinct his or her home.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2022. Move to another state.

If a person moves to another state with the intention of making it his or her domicile, the voter loses his or her domicile in this state.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2023. Move to another state.

If a person moves to another state as a place of permanent residence, with the intention of remaining there for an indefinite time, he or she loses his or her domicile in this state, notwithstanding that he or she intends to return at some future time.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2024. Intention and fact of removal.

The mere intention to acquire a new domicile, without the fact of removal avails nothing, neither does the fact of removal without the intention.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2025. Employment in the service of the United States; navigation; institution.

A person does not gain or lose a domicile solely by reason of his or her presence or absence from a place while employed in the service of the United States or of this state, nor while engaged in navigation, nor while a student of any institution of learning, nor while kept in an almshouse, asylum or prison. This section shall not be construed to prevent a student at an institution of learning from qualifying as an elector in the locality where he or she domiciles while attending that institution, when in fact the student has abandoned his or her former domicile.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2026. Domicile of legislative member or congressional representative.

The domicile of a Member of the Legislature or a Representative in the Congress of the United States shall be conclusively presumed to be at the residence address indicated on that person's currently filed affidavit of registration, as long as the address is a residence under subdivision (c) of Section 349, notwithstanding that the member or representative may have another residence at which any of the following apply:

- (a) A child for whom the member or representative is a parent, stepparent, foster parent, guardian, or caretaker is enrolled in school.
- (b) The spouse, domestic partner, or intimate partner of the member or representative is located for employment.
- (c) The member or representative receives mail or other postal or parcel deliveries.
- (d) The member or representative owns, leases, or rents a dwelling.
- (e) The member or representative claims a homeowner's exemption or any other similar claim for tax purposes.
- (f) The member or representative maintains accounts or pays for utilities, cable or satellite television, Internet service, home security service, home or landscape maintenance, or other similar services.
- (g) The member or representative registers a vehicle or boat.
- (h) The member or representative maintains policies of insurance.
- (i) The member or representative has items of personal property.

(Amended by Stats. 2018, Ch. 911, Sec. 1. (SB 1250) Effective January 1, 2019.)

Elections Code §2027. Domicile of family; residence in trailer.

The place where a person's family is domiciled is his or her domicile unless it is a place for temporary establishment for his or her family or for transient objects. Residence in a trailer or vehicle or at any public camp or camping ground may constitute a domicile for voting purposes if the registrant complies with the other requirements of this article.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2028. Place of family and business.

If a person has a family fixed in one place, and the person does business in another place, the former is the person's place of domicile. However, if the person having a family fixed in one place, has taken up an abode in another place with the intention of remaining, and the person's family does not so reside with the person, the person is a domiciliary where the person has so taken up the abode. For purposes of this section, a person may take up an abode at the same place at which the person does business.

(Amended by Stats. 2019, Ch. 63, Sec. 1. (AB 679) Effective January 1, 2020.)

Elections Code §2029. Domicile of spouse.

The domicile of one spouse shall not be presumed to be that of the other but shall be determined independently in accordance with this article.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2030. Marriage to a person employed in the service of the United States.

A domiciliary of this state who marries a person employed temporarily in this state in the service of the United States government, may elect to retain his or her domicile for the purpose of qualifying as an elector only, except that his or her domicile in this state shall terminate if the domiciliary qualifies as an elector in any other state or any territory.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2031. Homeowner's property tax exemption; renter's tax credit; driver's license.

If a person has more than one residence and that person maintains a homeowner's property tax exemption on the dwelling of one of the residences pursuant to Section 218 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the residence subject to the homeowner's property tax exemption is that person's domicile. However, this presumption shall not apply in the event any other residence is listed as the person's current residence address on any driver's license, identification card or vehicle registration issued to that person by, and on file with, the Department of Motor Vehicles. If a person has more than one residence and that person claims a renter's tax credit for one of the residences pursuant to Section 17053.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the residence subject to the renter's tax credit is that person's domicile. However, this presumption shall not apply in the event any other residence is listed as the person's current residence address on any driver's license, identification card, or vehicle registration issued to that person by, and on file with, the Department of Motor Vehicles. This section shall not be applicable to state or federal elected officials.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2032. More than one residence.

Except as provided in this article, if a person has more than one residence and that person has not physically resided at any one of the residences within the immediately preceding year, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that those residences in which he or she has not so resided within the immediate preceding year are merely residences as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 349 and not his or her domicile.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2033. Change of house number.

Whenever the house number or the mailing address of a voter has been changed and the voter's domicile is the same, the public agency authorizing the change shall notify the county elections official in writing of the change and the county elections official shall make the change on the voter's affidavit of registration and a new affidavit shall not be required.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2034. Domicile in more than one precinct.

A person domiciled in a house or apartment lying in more than one precinct shall be registered as domiciled in the precinct designated by the county elections official on the basis of the street address or other precinct the county elections official considers appropriate unless the person requests, either by letter or in person at the office of the county elections official, that he or she wishes to be domiciled for registration purposes in another precinct in which his or her house or apartment lies. In order to fulfill the requirements of this section, the letter of request shall include the name, signature, and residence address of the requester.

(Enacted by Stats. 1994, Ch. 920, Sec. 2.)

Elections Code §2035. Voter residence changes 14 days prior to an election.

A person duly registered as a voter in any precinct in California who removes therefrom within 14 days prior to an election shall, for the purpose of that election, be entitled to vote in the precinct from which the person so removed until the close of the polls on the date of that election.

(Amended by Stats. 2000, Ch. 899, Sec. 1. Effective January 1, 2001.)

INCOMPATIBLE OFFICES

Elections Code Section 8003

Government Code Section 1099, 87100, 87103

The Political Reform Act does not prohibit any officeholder from holding multiple public offices or seeking more than one elective office. For example, a deputy district attorney can hold the office of city council member, or a water board director and may also be elected to a park and recreation district. There are, however, instances of holding more than one office that are considered incompatible.

There is no single statute that defines “incompatibility of offices”. The common law doctrine of incompatibility of offices, however, prevents an elected official from holding two offices simultaneously if the offices have overlapping and conflicting public duties.

The courts have defined the concept as follows: “One individual may not simultaneously hold two public offices where the functions of the offices concerned are inherently inconsistent, as where there are conflicting interests, or where the nature of the duties of the two offices is such as to render it improper due to considerations of public policy for one person to retain both”.

The State of California Attorney General’s Office has issued many opinions of particular compatibility questions. Here are six examples of incompatible offices:

- The offices of city councilman and school district board member where the city and the school district have territory in common.
- Fire Chief of a County Fire Protection District and member of the Board of Supervisors of the same county.
- High School District Trustee and Trustee of an Elementary School District which is wholly within the geographic boundaries of the high school district.
- Water District Director and a City Council member.
- Water District Director and a School District Trustee having territory in common; and
- Deputy Sheriff and County Supervisor.

If you have a question about whether two public offices which you hold or seek to hold would be considered incompatible, contact the Attorney General’s office.

(b)(1) Section 8022, as it pertains to the offices of Representative in Congress, Member of the State Board of Equalization, State Senator, or Member of the Assembly, shall not be operative.

CODE OF FAIR CAMPAIGN PRACTICES

Elections Code Chapter 5, Division 20

Article 1. General Intent

20400. The Legislature declares that the purpose of this chapter is to encourage every candidate for public office in this state to subscribe to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

It is the ultimate intent of the Legislature that every candidate for public office in this state who subscribes to the Code of Fair Campaign Practices will follow the basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play in order that, after vigorously contested, but fairly conducted campaigns, the citizens of this state may exercise their constitutional right to vote, free from dishonest and unethical practices which tend to prevent the full and free expression of the will of the voters.

The purpose in creating the Code of Fair Campaign Practices is to give voters guidelines in determining fair play and to encourage candidate to discuss issues instead of untruths or distortions.

Article 2. Definitions

20420. As used in this chapter, "Code" means the Code of Fair Campaign Practices.

Article 3. Code of Fair Campaign Practices

20440. At the time an individual is issued his or her declaration of candidacy, nomination papers, or any other paper evidencing an intention to be a candidate for public office, the elections official shall give the individual a blank form of the code and a copy of this chapter. The elections official shall inform each candidate for public office that subscription to the code is VOLUNTARY.

In the case of a committee making an independent expenditure, as defined in Section 82031 of the Government Code, the Secretary of State shall provide a blank form and a copy of this chapter to the individual filing, in accordance with Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code, an initial campaign statement on behalf of the committee.

20441. The Secretary of State shall print, or cause to be printed, blank forms of the code. The Secretary of State shall supply the forms to elections officials in quantities and at times requested by the election's officials.

20442. The elections official shall accept, at all times prior to the election, all completed forms that are properly subscribed to by a candidate for public office and shall retain them for public inspection until 30 days after the election.

20443. Every code subscribed to by a candidate for public office pursuant to this chapter is a public record open for public inspection.

20444. In no event shall a candidate for public office be required to subscribe to or endorse the code.

CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE REPORTING

Government Code Section 87200

The Political Reform Act of 1974 requires all candidates for state and local elective office, all state and local elected officeholders, proponents of state and local ballot measures who control a ballot measure committee, and committees supporting or opposing state and local candidates, and all measure committees, to file campaign disclosure statements disclosing contributions received and expenditures made. It is the responsibility of the candidate and or committee to be aware of and to file required campaign disclosure statements in a correct and timely manner. Government Code Section 91013 provides for a late filing fine of $10 per day for the late filing of any campaign disclosure statements after the deadline until the statement or report is filed.

There is no local Madera County ordinance limiting the amount of contributions a candidate/committee may receive. However, pursuant to Assembly Bill 571 (Stats. 2019, Ch. 556, AB 571 Mullin), beginning January 1, 2021, a state campaign contribution limit will by default apply to city and county candidates when the city or county has not already enacted a contribution limit on such candidates. Along with the new campaign contribution limit, there are also other related provisions that formerly applied only to state level candidates that will now apply to city and county candidates. Please note that none of the provisions of AB 571 discussed herein apply to candidates in cities or counties for which the city or county has enacted campaign contribution limits.

Current State Contribution Limit

The contribution limit that will now apply to city and county candidates pursuant to AB 571 is updated biennially for inflation. Contribution limits can be found in Regulation 18545(a)² and on the FPPC website. The default limit for contributions to city and county candidates subject to AB 571 for 2021-2022 is set at $4,900 per election.

OTHER AMENDED PROVISIONS AFFECTING CITY CANDIDATES

Several other provisions will now apply to city candidates in jurisdictions that have not enacted campaign contribution limits, including the following:

- A candidate may not make a contribution over the AB571 limit to another candidate in jurisdictions subject to the AB571 limit.
- Candidates may transfer campaign funds from one-candidate controlled committee to another committee controlled by the same candidate if the committee receiving the transfer is not for an elective state, county or city office. However, contributions transferred must be transferred using the “last in, first out” or “first in, first out” accounting method and shall not exceed the applicable contribution limit per contributor.
- Candidates may not personally loan to a candidate’s campaign an amount for which the outstanding balance exceeds $100,000. A candidate may not charge interest on any such loan the candidate made to the candidate’s campaign.

Candidates may establish a committee to oppose the qualification of a recall measure and the recall election when the candidate receives a notice of intent to recall. Campaign funds raised to oppose the qualification of a recall measure and/or the recall election would not be subject to any campaign contribution limit under the Act.

- Contributions after the date of the election may be accepted to the extent contributions do not exceed net debts outstanding from the election, and contributions do not otherwise exceed applicable contribution limits for that election.
- Candidates may carry over contributions raised in connection with one election to pay for campaign expenditures incurred in connection with a subsequent election for the same office.
- Candidates are permitted to raise contributions for a general election before the primary election and may establish separate campaign contribution accounts for the primary and general so long as the candidates set aside contributions and use them for the general or special general election as raised. If the candidate is defeated in the primary election or otherwise withdraws from the general election, the general election funds must be refunded to contributors on a pro rata basis less any expenses associated with the raising and administration of the general election contributions.

On November 7, 2017, the Madera County Board of Supervisors adopted an Ordinance Number 263A adding a section to Title 2.09 of the Madera County Code to enact electronic filing of Campaign Disclosure Statements which mandates all filings to be made electronically effective January 1, 2018. As a result, as a candidate and/or officeholder, you will be required to file your campaign disclosure documents for this election and all future filings, electronically.

A “Welcome Letter” with instructions for completing your statements on NetFile will be sent to the email address you provided on your candidate worksheet.

CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS OVERLOOKED

BE INFORMED: The Franchise Tax Board is authorized under Section 90001 of the Government Code to audit Campaign Disclosure Statements. The audit can include tests of the accounting records and other such auditing procedures.

The purpose of campaign disclosure is to provide the public with the identity of contributors and the amounts they give, as well as the amount officeholders, candidates and committees spend. The laws passed to enforce that purpose can be challenging for the unwary, therefore some often-overlooked requirements, some identified in audit reports, are provided here:

- Unopposed candidates are subject to provisions of the Political Reform Act (GC 82007).
- Contributions include PERSONAL FUNDS and are subject to the same disclosure requirements.
- Loans to a candidate are considered contributions unless the loan is from a financial institution.

- Filing fees and candidate statement fees may be paid in cash if the candidate is using personal funds and will not be reimbursed through the committee (GC 85200). Otherwise, campaign disclosure laws requires that expenditures of $100 or more be made by written instrument containing the names of both the payee and payer. (GC 84300)

- Never accept or spend $100 or more in cash.

- For contributions of $100 or more, including loans, and in-kind contributions, you must disclose the contributor's name, address, occupation and employer.
